From the Greek Poetess Maria Mistrioti

"We all know, that Humanity and Human Civilization are in a very deep crisis.

Violence, war, the destruction of the environment, the power of money and above all, the lack of education are trying to dominate us.

However, I believe, that Poetry is a proposition of Civilization.

In actual fact, Poetry has a special Power, because it defends Peace, Justice, Freedom, Love, among People, among Nations. So, Poetry is a light in the darkness.

The true Poets through their writing they denounces social inequalities and gross injustice.

With a few words, I believe that the Poets of all the world have the moral obligation to fight for the human Rights and human dignity. In this sense, Poetry touches the Infinite and the Eternal..."

- I am an organizer of International Poetic Festivals in Greece.

So, I always fight for these Meetings, with Theme: "Contribution of Poetry in the Brotherhood of People".

A my great Wish is, Greece and my hometown Chalkida, to become a crossroad for meetings of Poets, from all over the world.

Maria Mistrioti

Great friends of "La casa della Poesia di Como", thank You very much for this invitation and I congratulate You, for Your important activities. Really You defend Poetry, Culture, Civilization.

Some my thoughts about the meaning of Poetry:
